Babies and young children are welcome at LLL GB events. They remain the responsibility of their parents at all times. One only additional adult to help with children per full delegate.

Alfreton is a town in Amber Valley, in the heart of Derbyshire. The town is accessible by public transport and is close to the M1. There are things to do in and around the venue and the town for accompanying family members.

The delegate fee includes the exclusive use of the Atlantis indoor play centre at the venue on Day 2.

The conference fee includes all refreshments and a buffet lunch on Day 2. This includes vegetarian options. Lunch is not included Day 1. The venue has a café open to the public with reasonable prices and nearby there are shops and cafes where it is easy to purchase food prior to the conference. An evening meal is available at the venue as an optional extra that evening.
